Hero Charades

Materials:

Slips of paper with heroes' job titles written on them
(suggestions: police officer, firefighter, teacher, Cub Scout leader, astronaut, librarian, doctor, search and rescue, lifeguard)

Instructions:

1. Divide the group into two teams.
2. A player from a team draws a slip of paper and acts out the part in front of both teams.
3. The first team to guess correctly scores a point. When the correct answer is given, the player who acted stands straight and the rest of the group salutes him.
4. Teams take turns acting out the heroes.
5. Try to make sure all players have a chance to act.

Pass the Ball

Materials:

a ball for each team

This is a circle ball-passing game. It's played with two teams of equal size arranged in rings. Each team's goal is to move the ball around the ring five times. Adding difficult passing methods and stunts makes the game more challenging and allows the leader to adjust the difficulty to the level of the players. The Cub Scouts will learn a bit about teamwork and cooperation as well as passing and catching skills.

Each team should choose a captain and then form a circle ranging from 3 to 6 feet depending on the skills of the players. Each captain holds a playground ball.

At the signal the game begins with each captain throwing the ball to the player on his right. Players continue to pass the ball to the right as quickly as possible. When the ball has made a full trip around the circle and is back with the captain, he shouts, "One!" and keeps on passing the ball. The captains count each round. If the ball is dropped, it is returned to the captain and the round starts over.

Remember to add difficulty to the game – add a different passing method or stunt to make passing the ball more difficult as it travels around the circle (some ideas could be – toss underhand, a high toss, a super slow toss, a handoff, etc).

My Hero

(instructions)

Materials:

Blank "My Hero" sheet

Instructions:

Explain to the Cub Scouts that they have a hero on this paper that is ready to fight against whatever it is they would like their hero to fight against. Maybe their hero fights against bullies and mean kids at school. Maybe their hero fights criminals and robbers.

Have the Cub Scouts use their imaginations and creativity to complete the drawing of their hero. What are his or her strengths? What does he or she do best? What words might this hero like to say?

Make sure they put the name for the hero either at the top or at the bottom of the page.

Cubmaster:

This month we've be talking and learning about the point of the Scout Law – Loyal.

We love having friends. We like to play games with our friends and spending time with our friends. Sometimes friends need help. True and good friends help us and support us. They are loyal to us and loyal to our friendship.

Loyal friends can help us do the right thing, even if you're not sure it will work. Go do your best to be the best friend that you can be!
